

Cobham and Stoke D'Abernon Local Heritage Asset List

Submissions

submitted 16th November 2021

Cobham and Downside Residents Association Cobham Conservation and Heritage Trust Stoke D'Abernon Residents Association

1 - 4 Homeyard Cottages Cedar Road
12 Church Street identical to no 14 and designed by Leonard Martin
14 Church Street identical to no 12 and designed by Leonard Martin
16 - 10 High Street (opposite Farrants) gabled shops
17 Church Street formerly Hutchinsons Coal Merchants
2 Church Street now John D Wood
4 Church Street, now Aromaden
57-67 Anyards Road delightful group of architecturally intricate cottages
67-69 Portsmouth Road medieval structure lies behind façade
Air raid shelter on the Tilt

Anvil Lane from Painshill to Downside Bridge Road (heritage walk and historic route)

Ash Ford Bridge Stoke D'Abernon

Barclays Bank - Now Gails Bakery - High Street; imposing local bank reminiscent of its era
Clerkenwell Boundary Marker outside Waitrose
Cobham and Stoke D'Abernon Station and Stationmasters House

Cobham Cemetery inc Mortuary Chapel, McAlpine Mausoleum and Bronze Figure

East Lodge Woodlands Lane
Ebenezer Hall Cedar Road former Gospel Chapel
Electricity Box Mill Road
Field of Hope Stoke D'Abernon

Former Telephone Repeater Station 274 Portsmouth Road Cobham (now preschool & nursery)

Guide Hut, Stoke D'Abernon Recreation Ground
Leg O Mutton Field
Leigh Hill Road Footpath
Lemon Tree Shop High Street -delightful single storey gable fronted shop

Milestone on Portsmouth Road -Hyde Park Corner 17 miles

Polyapes Scout Hut
Public Conveniences Hollyhedge Road
Riverhill Footpath
Riverhill and Platform
Royal British Legion Downside Bridge Road
Royal Mail Sorting Office - High Street
Sheath Lane Footbridge over the Railway (Stoke D'Abernon/Oxshott borders)
Shops from No 11 High Street to Farrants
St Andrews Churchyard Cobham
St Bridgets Church Street
St John's Ambulance building Portsmouth Road

Stoke D'Abernon Recreation Ground
Stoke D'Abernon Memorial Park
Stoke D'Abernon Village Hall
The Boot Store sign on side of 11 High Street
Tilt war memorial - Granite
Tiltwood Care Home formerly St Andrew's Infant school
Village Clock Cobham High Street (Millenium Project)
Vincent Road Arches Stoke D'Abernon

The red highlighted items were added by the CDRA. Those in yellow are the ones which the CDRA were promoting and other local organisations had suggested. The remainder are those which the CDRA has deferred to Cobham Conservation and Heritage Trust and Stoke D'Abernon Residents' Association as items specific to their individual expertise.